Thursday rolled along pretty soon, and I didn't sleep a bit last night. I had heard so much about Mr. Newhouse's private residence out to Jamaica Plain, and I had had an invitation to go out there with Uncle Ned and see the place.

We started out at half past twelve that afternoon, got on the horse cars on Tremont Street, rode out to Roxbury Crossing, and Uncle Ned saw a man there that took care of the car station. He was giving the folks transfer tickets that wanted to go on the Dorchester Street cars. This man's name was Tim Sullivan and he only had one arm, Uncle Ned was well acquainted with him. Mr. Sullivan used to work on the horse cars for a good many years over in South Boston.

Engagement Announced—Chapman's Given Shower—Curtis Moved to Norway.

At a group meeting of the Butler Bible Class of the First Baptist Church, Tuesday evening, at the home of Miss Nellie Stone, 17 Concord Street, Malden, Mass., the engagement of Miss Martha B. Caswell, grade 5 teacher at the Maplewood school to Ernest John Ryan of Malden, was announced. In the absence of Miss Caswell's mother, Miss Stone made the announcement. Ice cream and cake were served and Miss Nellie Keach, also a teacher in the Maplewood school, favored with four original, pointed notes. Miss Caswell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis H. Caswell of Harrison. She is a graduate of Bridgton Academy, 21, Farmington Normal, 23, and attended Lowell Seminary. She studied violin for four years in Weymouth Conservatory, is past president of the Parent-Teachers' Association of Harrison, building representative of the Malden Teachers' Association, a member of the Woodland Rebekah Lodge in Harrison. She is also recording secretary of the Butler Bible Class. She has been teaching in Malden since 1927.

Mr. Ryan resides at 119 Trenton Street

Meirhoe, and is the son of J. Harvey Ryan and Mrs. Mary Ryan of Malden.

Mr. Ryan is a member of the Malden Public Schools of Everett and Somerville and received his technical training at Franklin Union and Wentworth Institute. He is a World War veteran and a member of the Malden post of the Legion. During the war he served as electrician in the navy. Mr. Ryan is a member of the Canopy and Police Square Clubs of Malden, a member of the Malden Chautauque Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Natick and also holds membership in Aleppo Temple of Mystic Shrine and Knights Templar. He is a member of the K. O. S. D. of Malden and attends the First Baptist Church. He is a plumber and steamfitter at Middlesex Mills division of the Metropolitan Water District Commission. No date has been set for the wedding.

Last Tuesday Mrs. B. M. Davis and Miss Clara H. Tarbox gave a delightful picnic for their classes in the Calvary Community church school. A supper at Crystal Lake followed by delicious home made ice cream made the day to be remembered by about sixteen little folks.

Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Witham and family of Camden were guests the past week of Mrs. Jessie Warren at her home on Main Street. Mr. Witham is pastor of the Congregational Church at Camden. They are renovating the Jordan Home at North Portland and making a summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Chapman were given a kitchen shower at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Chapman, on Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman are to start housekeeping soon in the former Grover house on Waterford Road. An evening of games and stunts was enjoyed and the young couple were the recipients of many useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Harrington Flint and her mother, Mrs. Ash, who have spent the winter in Jamaica, N. Y., have returned to Harrison for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Flint are with his father, George A. Flint on High Street and Madam Ash will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Whitney.

Mrs. Mary Smith who has spent the winter in Bangor is at her apartment in the Smith house on High Street for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doughty of Portland arrived Sunday at their home on Main Street for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bennett, who have been receiving treatment at the St. Barnabas Hospital in Portland, returned Sunday to their home here both greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Henrietta Rice is spending a few weeks in Boston and at her former home in Winchester.

Elmer Thomas, who was so seriously hurt a few weeks ago, has returned from St. Barnabas Hospital in Portland and is at his home on Maple Ridge.

Albert S. Edgecomb has also returned to his home here from St. Barnabas where he had a tonsil operation. A graduate nurse accompanied him but she has returned to Portland.

Mrs. Mona G. Ingalls entertained her

Read Andre Hamann's announcement about the new teacher school building at the new school on the corner of Main and Elm. The name is Sanitary Barber Shop. Maurice Girardien is assistant, with experience gained in New York and Boston.

Frank J. Russell, 86, Charles C. Brackett, 84, and Horace C. Kimball, 55, were out of town, misplaced, and in one case the name plate was several hours from the corner. The sign boards, head of the street, at the corner of the street, now stand upright. For months, they have leaned like drunken sailors, because of contact with middlemen children, and careless auto drivers.

Street signs have been rounded up and placed by the City. Many signs were out of town, misplaced, and in one case the name plate was several hours from the corner. The sign boards, head of the street, at the corner of the street, now stand upright. For months, they have leaned like drunken sailors, because of contact with middlemen children, and careless auto drivers.

Swill, rubbish and various odds and ends are thrown from cars and little to the beauties of nature. Many complain that the roadsides are becoming a dump and an eyesore for tourists. This disposal of rubbish in swill, rusty pails and old newspaper wrappers is a good thing in the proper place, but that place is not along the public highway.
